

WILL IT FIT GUIDE

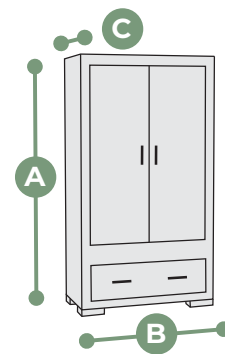

Getting new furniture is exciting, so we want your delivery to go as smoothly as possible. That's why we've put together this easy-to-use measuring guide for you.

Step 1 – packaged and unpackaged measurements

Find packaged and unpackaged measurements for your chosen wardrobe under the Dimensions & Assembly and Assembly & Packaging tabs on the product page on our website and make a note of them all.

A Height
B Width
C Depth

A Height
B Width
C Depth

Step 2 – your wardrobe's route

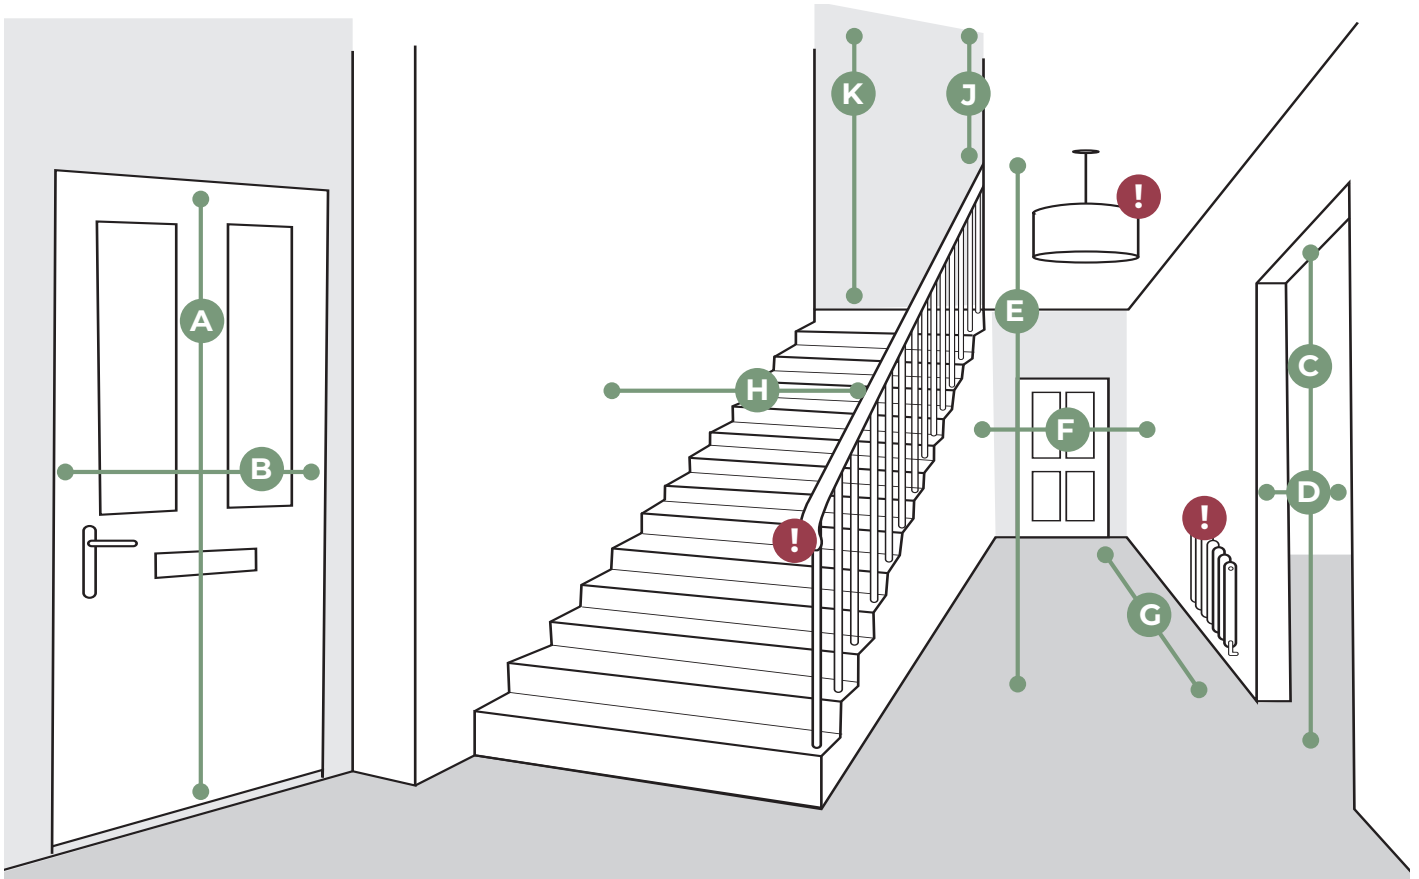

Walk your wardrobe's access route through your home and to your room of choice. Move any potential obstacles out of the way, such as wall art, low-hanging lampshades, ornaments and side tables. It's also a good idea to cover floors to prevent any accidental scuffs. Measure the entire route your new wardrobe will take from your front door to your room of choice against the packaged dimensions, and then measure your room of choice against the unpackaged, assembled dimensions.

The wardrobe's box can be rotated to fit through tight turns as long as:

- a) the ceiling height is bigger than the depth of the box;
- b) the height of the box is smaller than the width of the gap.

! When measuring, take into account fixed obstacles, such as radiators, wall shelves, light fittings or handrails. Our delivery teams cannot lift heavy packages over obstacles above waist height, so check your order will fit around bannisters.

Step 3 – Record measurements

Doorways
A Front door frame height:
B Front door frame width:
C Narrowest internal door frame height:
D Narrowest internal door frame width:
Hallways
E Ceiling height at narrowest point:
F Width at narrowest point:
G Depth at narrowest point:

Stairs
H Narrowest stairway width:
J Space between top of bannister and ceiling:
K Floor to ceiling height on tight corners or stair return:
Lifts
Doorway height:
Doorway width:
Depth of lift:

Most of our wardrobes are available with Room of Choice, Flexible or Premium Delivery. Our quick assembly wardrobes are only available with Premium Delivery, meaning all you need to do on delivery day is be at home, easy!

If you want to talk through anything on this guide, our Customer Services team is here to help on 0800 440 2254, 9am–6pm, Monday – Saturday.